The Clerk is directed to present them to the notice of the yearly meeting

The queries were all read in this meeting with the answers received from the Quarterly Meetings & the Half Yearly Meeting of Virginia, from which the following Summary answers were united with as nearly representing the present state of this meeting 1st And Ministers & Elders are diligent in the attendance of meetings for worship and discipline, and they encourage their families to that religious duty.

2nd And Ministers & Elders in the exercise of their gifts appear careful to wait for divine ability and are sound in the doctrine of the Christian religion.

3rd And Ministers & Elders are in unity one with another and with the meetings to which they belong with one exception, manifesting a religious concern for the salva-cement of truth and the support of our disciples.

4th And Ministers & Elders are good examples in uprightness, temperance, & moderation and in endeavor to educate their families in plainness of dress and simplicity of manner becoming our religious profession.

Francis T King, James E Thomas, John B. Greenhaw were appointed to prepare a return minute for our beloved friend William Green of Ireland, who was so acceptable with us last year, with credentials from the Monthly meeting of Lisburn, Indiana by Western Quarterly meeting, and the yearly meeting of Ministers & Elders of Dublin and produce it to future sitting of this meeting. Then adjourn to nine o'clock on 5th day morning next the 22nd instant.

Fifth of the week and 22nd of Month. Near the time adjourned to friends assembled.

The friends appointed to prepare a return minute for our beloved friend William Green produced the following which with some change was approved of by the meeting.

The clerk was directed to sign it on behalf of the meeting, and forward it.

To the Monthly Meeting of Lisburn, Quarterly meeting for the Province of Ulster, and the yearly meeting of Ministers and Elders in Dublin.
