The Clerk was directed to present them to the Yearly Meeting.

The Queries were all read and the following answers adopted to represent the present condition of the Meeting. viz.

1st Ans. Friends are diligent in the attendance of Meetings for worship & discipline and they encourage their families to that religious duty.

2nd Ans. In the exercise of their gifts friends appear careful to wait for and act under the ability which God giveth, and they are sound in the doctrines of the Christian religion.

3rd Ans. Friends are generally in unity one with another and with the Meetings to which they belong, manifesting a religious concern for the advancement of truth and the support of our disciplines.

4th Ans. Friends appear to be good examples in uprightness, temperance and moderation and they endeavor to educate their families in that plainness and simplicity which becomes our religious profession.
