were read in this meeting and the following answers were agreed upon to represent the present Condition of this meeting.

1st Ans. Friends are diligent in the attendance of meetings for worship and discipline and encourage their families to that religious duty.

2nd Ans. Friends are careful in the exercise of their gifts - to wait for and act under the ability which God giveth, and they are sound in the doctrines of the Christian religion.

3rd Ans. Friends are in unity one with another and with the meetings to which they belong and manifest a vigorous concern for the advancement of truth and the support of our discipline

4th Ans. We believe friends are good examples of uprightness, temperance, and moderation and are careful to educate their families in that plainness & simplicity that becomes our Christian profession.

Then adjourned to nine o'clock Fourth-day Morning O. C. Carey Thomas. Clerk.
