in our meeting held in joint session that they believed it to be the will of the Lord they should visit in gospel love London & Dublin Yearly Meetings and some of the meetings composing them in England and Ireland, also the meetings and Friends in Norway and Sweden with such other religious service while thus engaged as they may feel called to by their Lord & Master.

After prayerful deliberation, this meeting fully unites liberates and encourages them to attend thereto faithfully under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In thus liberating our dear friends for this arduous service to which we believe they are called, we commend them to the care and loving sympathy of those among whom their lot may be cast, trusting that He who calls will go with and preserve them until the work is accomplished and safely return them to us again.
