

1886.

26

John
+
Sarah
W.
Kewens
Minutes.

sympathy with them, and left them at liberty to lay their concern before the Morning Meeting of London Yearly Meeting ^{for their judgment} trusting that the Lord may direct and bless all their service for Him.

The Clerk was directed to forward them a copy of this minute.

They adjourned to 9 o'clock next 4th day morning.

Jos. P. Elliott
Clerk.

4th day morning 11th Mo. 10th 1886

2nd
Session.

The meeting assembled pursuant to adjournment.

M.A.M.

Allen +
John Taylor.

Besides friends from other Yearly Meetings present at our last session, there were acceptably with us at this meeting our friends Mary A. M. Allen - an Overseer, with a minute from Dublin Yearly Meeting, and John Taylor a minister from

1886

27

London who is in this country on business.

The meeting was brought under renewed exercise, and before its conclusion, the meeting adjourned in order for the assembling of the Yearly Meeting - Adjourned to 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Jos. P. Elliott Clerk

3rd
Session.

Fifth day morning 11th Mo. 11th 1886.

The meeting assembled pursuant to adjournment.

At the conclusion of the exercises the following Summary was presented by the clerk, read, and after some corrections, approved, and directed to be laid before the Yearly Meeting.

It is as follows:

Minutes
of Address.

The subject of the vanity of gifts spoken of by the Apostle Paul, in the Epistle to the Ephesians was brought before the meeting. The gift of prophecy was noted as a distinct legacy