were agreed upon to represent the present condition of this meeting.

Ans 1st We are diligent in the attendance of Meetings for worship and discipline, and we encourage our families to that religious duty. Our report says most of us are diligent in the attendance of Meetings for worship and discipline.

Ans 2nd In the exercise of our gifts we believe we are careful to wait for and act under the ability which God giveth, and that we are sound in the doctrines of the Christian religion.

Ans 3rd We are in unity one with another, and with the meetings to which we belong, but we fear that we do not at all times sufficiently manifest a religious concern for the advancement of truth and the support of our discipline.

Ans 4th We endeavor to be good examples in uprightness, temperance and moderation, and are careful to educate our families in that plainness and simplicity which becomes our religious profession.
