Fourth day morning 11th Mo. 15th
Friends met near the hour adjourned to.

Thomas M. Coy on behalf of the Representatives reported that they had conferred together and were united in proposing Dr. P. Elliott for Clerk and Richard H. Thomas assistant Clerk for the ensuing year, who being satisfactory to the meeting, were accordingly appointed.

The Committee appointed to prepare minutes for our dear Friends Richard H. Thomas and Anna P. Thomas produced the following which were satisfactory to the meeting and the Clerk was authorized to sign them on our behalf. #

Our friend Richard H. Thomas a Minister of the Gospel of the Society of Friends in unity and good esteem amongst us, has laid before this meeting his desire to visit in the love of the Gospel the Yearly Meetings of London & Dublin and to engage in religious service amongst Friends and others in Great
