

The company of these dear Friends is very acceptable to us, and a cordial welcome has been extended to them. The clerk was directed to forward their Minutes to the Year Meeting.

The Queries were read and the following answers adopted as a summary of them:—

Ans 1st. Most of us are diligent in the attendance on meetings for worship and discipline, and we encourage our families in that religious duty.

Ans 2nd. In the exercise of our gifts we believe that we are careful to wait for and to set under the ability that God giveth, and that we are sound in the doctrines of the Christian religion.

Ans. 3rd. We are in unity one with another, and with the meetings to which we belong, manifesting a religious concern for the advancement of truth and the support of our discipline.

Ans. 4th. ^{We endeavor to be good examples in} ~~So far as we are able, we are a good~~ ~~example in~~ uprightness, temperance and moderation, and they are careful to educate their families in that plainness and simplicity which becometh our religious profession.

During the consideration of the Queries and answers there was much valuable counsel and exhortation and the clerk was directed to prepare a summary of it and present it to our next Meeting.

The question of the propriety of this Meeting appointing a committee to visit the subordinate meetings on Ministry and Oversight and advise with its members unitedly and individually (in view of the probable adoption of the new Constitution and Discipline for the American Year Meeting) was brought before this Meeting. It was seriously considered and the general concern was united with, and the following Friends were appointed to consider the matter, and report a definite
