

186

self-sacrifice, nor are any to satisfy themselves with the methods of self-sacrifice needed by our fathers. We are to find out the lines needed to-day.

In our service we should have confidence not only in God, but also in one another, and to unite as far as we can with others in their efforts and in the burden of their work. Let us pray one for another and go forward in hope. Then Church thus united in service to the Church that will be guided. We need the help of the young. There is a vigor and freshness in youth that no earnestness in maturer life can take the place of.

No meeting can be self-centered without loss. The only way by which we can grow is to be faithful ourselves and to stretch out to those on the outside, in this way, not only will they be gained, but the Church also will receive new life.

Finally, let us abide in Christ, and present Him to the world in His fullness, laying stress both on His appearing in the flesh and His suffering for us - the just for the unjust that He might bring us to God. And also on His risen life and His abiding with saving power in the hearts of His children.

We especially impress the importance of prayer for one another, and for the work, prayer individually and prayer unitedly. A few gathering together in a private, and waiting upon God in earnest and united desire for His blessing upon the workers and upon the indifferent, will often be the means of great help to the cause. In waiting upon Him we learn how to come into harmony with Him, and how to receive His power to be workers with Him.

187

Shall not our prayer be -

Speak to be Lord, that I may speak
In living echoes of Thy love;
As Thou hast sought, so help me seek
Thy erring children lost and lone.

Oh feed me Lord, that I may lead
The wandering and the weary feet;
Oh feed me Lord, that I may feed
Thy hungry ones with manna sweet.

~~Then adjourned to meet at the usual~~

The Committee appointed at our last session to consider the matter of visiting our subordinate meetings, on Ministry and Oversight made the following report, which was approved and the Committee was appointed, subject