A cordial welcome was extended to these Friends, and the Clerk was directed to present their credentials to the Yearly Meeting.

Reports have been received from all our subordinate Meetings on M. & O. Those which make special reference to the Ministry state that it has seemed suited to the needs of the Meetings and otherwise helpful and instructive.

In addition to the regular Meetings for worship, attended by our Ministers, a number of meetings have been held by appointment for some of them as will appear in the report of the Pastoral & Evangelistic Committee.

In regard to the condition and work of the membership, the reports indicate that the members of this body are in unity with one another and that many of them manifest an interest in the spread of the gospel and conversion of sinners, and in the spiritual welfare of our members generally; and also an increasing desire to meet the responsibilities resting upon them as members of this meeting, and to enter more actively into the service of the Church. They also indicate a general care as to daily reading of the Scriptures and to
