The following report of the Committee appointed to visit the subordinate Meetings on Ministry and Oversight was received, read and approved, and the Committee was released: —

The Committee has given attention to the subject committed to it. It organized and met several times to plan the work and to agree as to the advice to be given under the differing local conditions.

Each of the Quarterly Meetings on Ministry and Oversight has been visited at least once.

The four local meetings in Pennsylvania have been visited and the local meetings of Concord Monthly Meeting, Va. —

We believe that the large majority of our
