

196

Under a sense of the Lord's presence with us, the meeting concluded—

John Nicholson—

Clerk for the day.—

At Baltimore Yearly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, held in Baltimore, by adjournments from XI mo. 6th to XI moth
10th 1903, by Reports from the subordinate meetings, it appears that the following are the Representatives.—

Baltimore: Saul R. Meave, T. James
Hunter, Jos. C. Thomas, Anna B. Thomas,
Margaret H. Elliott, Anna D. Stabler,
Martha W. Bishop, Rebecca J. Brown,
Elizabeth L. Tatum and Horace V. Easterday.

Dunning's Creek: J. Scott Miller, Catherine
Miller, Anna Way Smith.

Virginia $\frac{1}{2}$ year's meeting. (no report.)
who were present except four.—

197

Minutes were read for the following visiting Friends now in attendance—viz.

Allen Jay, a minister from White Water Monthly Meeting, Indiana, and Naomi Jay, his wife, an elder, who was prevented from attending.

Also for John M. Watson, a Minister from Skiatook
Monthly Meeting, endorsed by Elk River Quarterly Meeting, Kansas;

David E. Sampson, a Minister from North Carolina;

Anna M. Votaw, a Minister from Whitewater
Monthly Meeting, Indiana;

Charles E. Peasley, a Minister from Dover Quarterly Meeting,
New England;

Minnie Bassett, a Minister from Spickland Monthly Meeting, endorsed by Spickland Quarterly Mtg., Indiana;

David Farlow, Jr. a Minister from Southern Quarterly Meeting, North Carolina;

Ludley M. Stevens, a Minister, and his wife,

Elizabeth C. F. Stevens, an Elder, from Stamford Mon-thly Meeting, endorsed by Clerk of True Partners Quarterly Meeting, New York;

Leslie O. Meader, a member from Sandwich, New Hampshire, Monthly Meeting, New England, companion to Charles E. Peasley. All these Friends were warmly
*David Sampson was present without a Minute.