The Clerks were directed to prepare a report of the condition of this Meeting based upon the information in the reports from our Quarterly Meetings and send it to our Yearly Meeting. The report is as follows

REPORT OF BALTIMORE YEARLY MEETING ON MINISTRY
AND OVERSIGHT.—ELEVENTH MONTH, 1904.

To Baltimore Yearly Meeting: *

Dear Friends—In reporting the condition and work of our ministry and membership, we believe, from the reports sent up to us, the spiritual life and condition in our several Meetings to be on the increase. Several of our Meetings speak of the Ministry as being helpful and adapted to the needs of the congregation.

One Meeting expressed regret that so few of the young people appear to be developing in the ministry, and we realize a field is open for service to our elders; that the needed encouragement and help may be extended.

An anointed Ministry is essential to the growth of any Meeting; may we carefully nurse the appearance of this gift in any of our members.

We believe that in most of our Meetings there is a watchful oversight of the membership, to warn those who seem to be careless, and to interest them in Christian and philanthropic work; but an undivided allegiance to our Lord and the church is felt to be much needed amongst us.

The increased interest in Sabbath School work is reported to us, and we encourage our members to faithfulness in this line of service, believing that it is a preparation for a life of much usefulness.

We believe our members generally are coming to value, more than ever, the privilege of daily family worship; where our Lord is honored in the home, He will be honored in the church.

Unless in our everyday life we depend on the Lord and realize that He is our helper, even in temporal matters, we are not in a condition to be of much service when meeting our brethren in a church capacity.

We have been led, as officers of the church, to realize our responsibilities in these respects, and to know that without the filling of the Spirit we are insufficient, and we have prayed to be qualified for the work.
