

from Dartmouth Monthly Meeting, New England.
 Sylvester Jones a minister with a minute from Okaloosa Monthly Meeting endorsed by the Clerks of Okaloosa Quarterly Meeting and Okaloosa Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight. Iowa.
 Also for Sarah C. M. Sampson, who is liberated to accompany her husband David Sampson.

Several other Ministers came in later in the Yearly Meeting.

A cordial welcome was extended to these Friends, and the Clerk was directed to forward their credentials to the Yearly Meeting.

Reports of the state of our Meetings have been received from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting & Dunning's Creek & Monthly Meeting, Virginia Half Year's Meeting sending us no report this year.

Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, report they feel that they have much for which to thank Heavenly Father in that His blessing has rested upon their various meetings and that there is among them a spirit of steadfastness and hope

In nearly every instance an acceptable and helpful ministry is reported.

Evidence of the reception of new spiritual gifts and of the development of those heretofore received, is mentioned in some of their meetings; while serious losses by death and otherwise, affects the working force in various places. The matter of Family worship they feel ought to claim the serious attention of Friends, some of their reports claim that some have failed to observe this duty.
 Their Local meetings on Ministry & Oversight have been encouraged to meet frequently to make plans and to get out of the mere routine of reports and appointments; to study earnestly what may be done to hold, and build up their membership.

Dunning's Creek & monthly meeting reports they had no report from Burwensville Local Meeting. Their meetings for worship on First day are usually pretty well attended and are helpful; their interest in Bible schools and Foreign Missions work is about as last year. They express a desire
