

Meeting liberating him to attend Baltimore Yearly Meeting. New England Yearly Meeting. J. Waldo Woody, a minister with a minute from Blue River Monthly Meeting endorsed by Blue River Quarterly Meeting and by the Evangelistic Board of Western Yearly Meeting liberating him for service in North Carolina Yearly Meeting and elsewhere as way may open.

A cordial welcome is extended to these Friends and the Clerks are directed to forward their credentials to the Yearly Meeting.

Reports of the state of our Meetings have been received from all our Quarterly Meetings.

Baltimore Quarterly Meeting reports. That with a few exceptions, all their Meetings have been held, & that in most a good degree of spiritual life is manifested.

A helpful ministry is reported and the vocal exercises of those not in the station of Minister is acknowledged to be very acceptable. A desire is expressed that the active interest of the young people might be encouraged, by putting before them opportunities for service and encouraging them to engage there in.

They believe the responsibility for the advancement of the work of the Church, should rest largely on the membership of this meeting on Ministry & Oversight and to this end desire that a spirit of revival, should rest upon them, that they may be instrumental in bringing about the conversion of many.

Dummings Creek 4 Months Meeting reports as new work, in one of their Meetings a Bible Class held on 3^d day evenings during the past summer; which has proved very helpful.

They have reason to feel encouraged by reason of more interest manifested in established work in their other Meetings.

They report no interest as taken by many of their Members in the business Meetings of the Church, and one of their reports says
