

some of these have not been held. Virginia Half years Meeting reports, they have life, but much crave the more abundant life, that will energize them, to reach out to others & glorify God.

Their meetings for worship are well attended but note some lack in the attendance of those for discipline. They feel their Ministry is not sufficient for the needs of their several Meetings and earnestly desire some one to come amongst them, who can devote a large part of his or her time to the work. They speak of their membership being in unity one with another & as being in the practice of reading a portion of the Holy Scriptures in their families daily.
