

the clerk is directed to forward their credentials to the Yearly Meeting. Reports of the state of our Meetings have been received, from all our Quarterly Meetings.

Baltimore Quarterly Meeting reports.

That in the review of the past year, their sense of the goodness of God has been renewed, in that the privilege of service has opened to them and workers have been raised up to carry on His work: & in some cases the growth and development of gifts have been noticed. They believe there is a more general participation in the vocal services of public worship by those not in the station of minister, which has been encouraging & helpful.

The concern expressed a year ago relative to the interest of the young people, has been fruitful we believe, and in most places where we have young people, organizations of them have been effected and valuable and encouraging results have resulted.

Dunnings Creek Four Months Meeting report:-

While they realize that they do not live up to their privilege as believers in Christ, they feel there is life in their midst; with some evidence of a growth of interest in their meetings for worship.

A concern is felt on account of the carelessness of some Friends in nonattendance of meetings for discipline.

One of their meetings reports that some of such meetings have not been held for this reason; though an expression of hope is noticed in the report, which they trust may be realized.

Virginia Half Years Meeting report.

They believe there is evidence of life and growth in many of their members & they desire that that "abundant life" may be more manifest amongst the membership generally.

Their Meetings for worship and discipline have been regularly held and well attended, only one having been omitted on account of stormy weather.

Family devotions in some form has been observed in
