

author & finisher of our faith. As we do this we shall be more than conquerors. We need the spirit of intercession for others, we should be willing for our Heavenly Father to lay upon us, a cross for the needs of the world: that we may feel more keenly the burden of its sin & its sorrow and thus be partakers of the sufferings of Christ. Our love of ease & comfort & self pleasing, too often lead us to neglect the world & its sin & sorrow: to us individually and as a Church the call has come "The Master has come and calleth for thee". He will enable us to rise up and follow Him to greater fields of service. The Clerks submitted a report of the condition and work of the Ministry & of our membership, with some change it was approved and directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting. It is as follows

REPORT OF THE BALTIMORE YEARLY MEETING ON MINISTERS AND OVERSIGHT ON THE CONDITION AND WORK OF THE MINISTERS AND OUR MEMBERSHIP FOR THE YEARLY MEETING, HELD, ELEVENTH MONTH, 1907.

DEAR FRIENDS:

In again reporting our condition and work, we believe our Ministers earnestly desire to be used of God to deliver the message of the Gospel, but we realize that a more thorough consideration to the needs of our several localities and Meetings by us, it would be conducive to better results than we now obtain.

Some of our Meetings have little vocal Ministry; these have been visited once or twice during the year, and more frequent visits would be very helpful.

We all need more of the willingness to lay down our lives for the brethren; the cares of this life probably occupy too large a place with us, so that the fruit has not, in some instances, been brought to perfection.

But we are glad to acknowledge the goodness and mercy of our God, who is blessing us, with all our shortcomings, and in our impotency.

We believe as we yield ourselves and are willing to pay the price, opportunities will open for more work, and we hope as each of us, whether Minister, Elder or Overseer, is really concerned to fill our different appointments, God will use our Church in saving and blessing the world about us and to accomplish his purpose with us.

SAMUEL R. NEAVE, Clerk.

Thomas Edmundson a minister and Sarah R Barcroft an elder with a minute from Dublin Yearly Meeting 5th Mo 1907, appointing them Fraternal delegates to the Five Years Meeting & to such other service as way may open for. were present at this meeting.
