

message has been impressed upon them & encouragement given those unaccustomed to speak in public that they might be willing to make modest and even feeble offerings from which a strengthening and increase of service would surely follow. - Emphasis is laid on the responsibility of all members for the life & efficiency and attractiveness of the meetings for worship, by each one seeking to realize the presence and waiting Holy Spirit & interpreting his messages.

Dunsmuir Creek Half Yrs. Meeting reports:

That no Local Meetings on Ministry & Oversight have been held during the year at Centre or Curwensville Meetings. - Dunsmuir Creek local Meeting reports, the spiritual condition of their members as encouraging shown by attendance upon public worship and the interest therein manifested. They feel encouraged to believe that each member is trying to be a good example to others, in uprightness of life and that they are frequently and prayerfully seeking the right understanding of the Holy Scriptures. Their work in the Bible School has been blessed this year. The graded lessons in the Junior & Primary Classes have increased the interest of the children. Twenty six young people accepted Christ during a series of meetings held in the Bungalow by their Organized Young Peoples Class. They are deeply interested in the College meetings held weekly. - Several members of this class conducted two meetings in the I. T. L. room at Schellsburg which were well attended & much interest manifested. Since that time members of their meeting have helped every Sabbath evening in a young peoples meeting in the same room. Virginia Quarterly Meeting reports:

That they trust there has been a deepening of spiritual life among their members but there is evident a need of more Christian activity. Their meetings are well attended & some form of family devotion is observed in almost every home. Their members are engaged in Sabbath school work in Peace Temperance, Education Home and Foreign missions. James T. Chappell a minister from North Carolina and two ministers from Baltimore acceptably attended their meeting.

Answer to Query 5 -

Aunie D. Stabler a minister removed her