At Winchester, the roads reported still so bad that the meeting there again failed.

Debra C. Thomas expressed a concern for Sandy Spring and a desire that the queries could be read there sometimes. It was thought best that the concern of the meeting like this might well be embodied in an epistle to be prepared by a sub-committee and Elij. R. Hopkins Mary S. Thomas prepare such an epistle for Sandy Spring and and report it to Special Meeting for that purpose on 5th day week after morning meeting.

need of Bellefonte friends for meeting house in the town and then need of assistance. She gested that an invitation and encouragement (even to paying expenses if necessary for travelling) be extended to our members to attend our next
