one of the members, and another on second day morning, also at a friend's house. These meetings were attended by the members generally, and on first day some outsiders were present. Richmond. John B. Crenshaw, Arthur F. Lawrence, Dr. R. H. Thomas & wife visited Cedar Creek on the 10th. of 2nd. mo., and held four meetings - as follows. At the meeting house on first day morning the 11th. and also on second day morning. Meetings were held at friend's houses on the afternoons of these days. The attendance at the meetings varied from forty to sixty, and much interest seemed to be awakened. The friends were encouraged to revive the meeting which has been laid down for several years. Although there are only about seven members in this neighborhood, the members of other denominations have a traditional love for our Society, and seem anxious for the meeting to be built up. Since this series of meeting there have been two applications for membership. On the 14th. of 2nd. mo. John B. Crenshaw and wife visited Cedar Creek, where they were joined by our dear friend Isaac Sharp
