seem to be much to encourage in the state of the meeting.

Patuxent. No visits or reports.

Richmond J. Rindel and H. B. Harris went to Richmond on the 29th. of 12th. mo. On that evening a small prayer meeting was held. On First day morning they attended meeting, and in the evening held a social religious meeting at Jane Whitlock's which was ^{very} well attended. Many took part in this meeting, and one or two for the first time. On 2nd. day night the weather was very rough, but a small meeting was held, & conversation afterwards with friends and some others present. A desire was expressed at the close that at some early date a series of meetings may be held.
