

At a meeting of the Pastoral Committee of Baltimore Y.M. and the Cooperating Committee of Baltimore Monthly Meeting held 2nd and 11th 1834 - Present Nineteen Members and Chairman Isaac Sharp of England and Lydia Harland of Patuxent were also present. The Minutes of the last Meeting were read and approved.

Baltimore The Subject of the necessity of family visits among our members was discussed and in order to encourage those concerned to engage in the work the following were appointed a sub-committee on this subject viz. Mary S. Thomas, Anna Mary Richardson, Helen B. Harris, Jane E. White and James Carey.

second. * The following report was read from Federal Hill.

Washington James Carey and wife visited this Meeting on the 1st the services were satisfactory. B. Webb was present.

Sandy Spring No Report

Deer Creek No Report

Monallan No Report

Hopewell The following report was received and read from this Meeting Anna Mary Richardson, Anna B. Thomas and Mary S. Thomas went up to Hopewell on 3rd day the 5th inst and stayed until 7th day the 9th. They attended the Morning Monthly Meeting on 4th day at which nearly all the members were present - on 4th day evening a psalm meeting was held at Edward Jolliffe's, and another at Lydia Wright's on 5th day evening, and one at Joseph Jolliffe's on 6th day morning - on 6th day evening a meeting was held at Welltown Church - A foreign Mission Meeting was held at Hopewell on 5th day morning - The weather proved ^{very} unfavorable and all the meetings were small but a great blessing seemed to rest upon them. The following report was read from the friends abroad visiting this Meeting.

Four Members of the Committee Joseph Pelland and wife, P. R. Thomas and Mary S. Thomas, went up to visit the few friends belonging to our Meeting in this neighborhood on the 12th of 1st mo. A little meeting was held at Isaac Huges the evening of their arrival - Next morning, 1st day they attended the Streetside meeting by request of some of the members - In the afternoon a children's meeting was held in the Hall at Lincolnton which was attended by about