

Healthy condition of this meeting, with satisfactory attendance and interest - There is however increasing dissatisfaction with the uncertain relation they sustain to the Society - This subject being now before the Monthly Meeting, hope was expressed that a right conclusion would soon be reached.

Washington Anna V. Schofield reported that she and Elizabeth R. Hopkins attended that meeting yesterday the 11th inst. The meeting was small, but Lisa being present, besides themselves - They also attended the Bible Class, in which all present seemed much interested.

Ashton None of the Committee have visited this meeting since last meeting of the Committee, and there is no special report - It was suggested that possibly the time was very near when it would be proper to establish a Monthly Meeting there.

Hopewell - John & Sarah Newlin having returned from a visit to this meeting stated that they had attended seven meetings at Hopewell and its vicinity, which were generally well attended and satisfactory - They also visited most of the families belonging to the meeting, which service seemed to be well received.

Loudoun - Mary S. Thomas reports a good degree of interest still prevailing there, and that they have recently expressed a desire for a visit from certain members of the Committee, also that she, Robert Thomas, John and Mary Ann St. Elliott felt inclined to visit them very soon, if the Committee should approve of it - They were encouraged to do so - Patuxent no report.

Deer Creek John & Sarah Newlin stated that they have recently visited this meeting, and most of the families they attended four meetings.

Richmond and Cedar Creek no report.

Black Creek and Lomaxton no report.

Dunnings Creek John and Sarah Newlin stated that on their recent visit there they attended nineteen meetings, all of which were very satisfactory, with steadily increasing interest and attendance - Letters received from a member of the Committee since they left, the interest is still well maintained.

Bellefonte John and Sarah Newlin attended the last monthly meeting there, which was very small; some members were absent from home, and others detained by sickness - Rags L. Holt informs the Committee by letter, of his desire to attend the approaching Yearly Meeting at Bellefonte and if way opened the Monthly Meeting at Dunnings Creek - He was encouraged to do so, and a desire was expressed that Charles Y. Thomas would accompany him.