

about this meeting - there have been no visits paid to it since last meeting of the Committee.

Ashton - Mary S. Thomas stated that she had been asked by letter in regards to the necessary requisites for the formation of a Monthly Meeting - no visits have been paid since last meeting of the Committee.

Hopewell - Mary S. Thomas reported that she had received a letter from this place saying that a Weekly Bible Class had been started near Millbrook.

Loudoun - The following report was read and read: S. R. Thomas and Mary S. Thomas visited Loudoun Co on the 22nd of Nov. - That afternoon they attended the funeral of a little son of one of our members - they paid two or three visits to families, and held four appointed meetings in a hall at Lincolnton. All these meetings were well attended, and were times of blessing. He also attended by invitation the "Goose Creek" Meeting on First Day Morning, returning home on the 26th.

Potomac - No Report.

Deer Creek - It was reported that the Bible Class ^{was} kept up with interest and that a children's class had been started.

Richmond & Cedar Creek - It was stated that a letter had been received from W. H. Pleasant, Corresponding Secretary of Richmond Meeting saying that next week would suit for holding meetings there, and friends were encouraged to make a visit there to this place.

Black Creek & Smerton - No Report.

Bellefonte - This meeting has been visited by George L. Scott and Mary S. Thomas who ^{attended} held six meetings and two Sabbath Schools - the meetings were well attended. Chas. Y. Thomas was prevented from accompanying the others to this meeting by sickness.

Cumminsville - No Report.

Dunnings Creek - By letter received from this meeting it appears that the interest is maintained. ^{The corresponding Secretary} was requested to write to George L. Scott the Correspondent of Deer Creek Meeting with regard to the prospect of George L. Scott visiting Richmond. Lydia Harland's concern for visiting this meeting was referred to and she was encouraged to go.

After a time of prayer the meeting adjourned.

James Carey Jr.
Secretary.