

greatly encouraged and hopeful about the life and growth of their little meeting. Since the series of meetings they have started a weekly social meeting at the home of one of the members. A number of letters have been rec'd by members of the Committee expressing great hope and interest. - J. P. Elliott states that the Miles White Assn had appropriated $30 for purchasing new books for their 1st day school library.

Black Creek & Somerton - A letter was read from Let Sarah Harris to one of the members of the Committee saying that meetings of the Pastoral Committee were held with them and that she had been appointed Correspondent. She also referred to the recent meetings held by John and Sarah Stebbins from which good results could be expected. Bellefont - No Report. The need of new meetings here was referred to.

Curwinstown No Report.

Dunnings Creek - It was stated that there was much sickness among the members of this meeting. Two of whom have died.

The publication of the "Interchange" a new paper devoted to the interests of our Yearly Meeting was referred to and the good being done by it. The need of more visits to our various meetings was mentioned. - R. B. Thomas stated that he & J. C. Thomas intended paying a visit to Ashton Shattly.

After a time of waiting and prayer the Committee agreed.

James Carey Jr
Secretary.

At a Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Yearly Meeting's Pastoral Committee, and the Co-operating Committee of Baltimore Monthly Meeting - held Apr. 19th 1883

Present. Chairman and members

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved, after which the condition of the various meetings were considered. Baltimore, The subject of our members filling up the front benches in the First day morning meeting was referred to, and its importance urged.

It was agreed to hold another sociable on 4th day week, at which our friend F. T. King would read his Lecture, prepared for delivery in Philadelphia.

Several accessions to our meeting during the