

attending the meetings especially from the thickets which could be brought into membership with us. The meetings he thought could be better held there as well as in the other meetings of the quarter late in the fall probably after Baltimore Yearly Meeting and should then be protracted. The people are anxious for the Gospel and for the extension of their Church limits.

Cummins John Cunningham also attended this meeting and held from a fine meeting, visiting all the friends they could in walking as all the horses were sick. The meetings were well attended and interesting. They are glad to hear the truth and many are almost persuaded.

Bellefonte He also spent some time at Bellefonte attending the Sabbath School Meeting and Bible Class - also held appointed meeting at Rebecca Pugh's where they had a good meeting and visited all the families. There does not seem to be as much life as there should be in the membership of this meeting tho some are exceedingly alive to the great work to be done. He visited the fair once. The subject of a series of meetings at this place was referred to the first meeting of this Com. next fall.

A feeling of thankfulness was expressed that the Lord had abundantly answered the prayers of many of our meeting that He would send laborers amongst us and for the good work which they had done.

After a time of waiting on the Lord and prayer

At a regular meeting of the Executive Com^{tee} of the Yearly Meeting Pastoral Com^{tee} with co-operating Com^{tee} of Baltimore Monthly Meeting held 5th and 9th 1887. Present 17 members. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The meetings were then considered in the usual order.

Baltimore Dr J. C. Thomas stated that the Com^{tee} appointed at the last meeting in regard to social visiting among our members had not formally met, visits were however made by most of the members of the Com^{tee}. The Com^{tee} was released. The subject of the sociable meeting next 16th day evening was spoken of & reference made to several persons who were much interested in our meeting & were looking to a possible membership with us.

There is need of each one standing in the way of the service which would be laid upon him & it was strongly urged that each should be faithful to perform this service & not feel that it could be left to the ministers or those more advanced in Christian experience.

The same blessing which has lately attended some of our country meetings is now waiting for our own & only needs for its fulfillment the individual faithfulness of our members. There must be united faith, united prayer & united work & service for the Lord.

Federal Hill John C. Thomas stated that the meeting
