

with the new members to read and explain our Discipline. Nearly all those invited have attended, and much interest has been manifested.

Lomestown No report.

Summings Caroline E. Talbot, Sarah E. Harris and Crack Clara A. Davis attended the Four Months' Mtg. on the 25th. & 26th. of IX mo. The meetings were well attended, and the interest deepened each day. A letter from Lane Way reports that Caroline Talbot has been holding meetings each night since, and two on first day. She expected to remain until Yearly Meeting in the neighborhood.

Curwensville Julia Valentine and Mary S. Thomas visited Curwensville at the time of the Four Months' Mtg. in Sixth mo. and remained ten days holding meetings and visiting families. Dr. James E. Rhoads of Phila. was at the Four Months' Mtg. and remained over third day; besides attending the meetings he paid some family visits.

Bellefonte A first day school ^{that} was opened ^{just before} at the time of the Four Months' meeting has been well kept up, the average attendance being 20. Julia Valentine and Mary S. Thomas visited Bellefonte in the XI mo. remaining two weeks. They held several parlor meetings and also one appointed meeting at Elmville.

Then adjourned to XI mo. 7th. 1887

Mary Snowden Thomas

Secretary pro. tem.

At a Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Yearly Meetings' Pastoral Committee with the Co-operating Committee of Baltimore Monthly Meeting held according to adjournment - Nov. 27th 1887 Present 15 members.

The Chairman being absent John C. Thomas was chosen chairman for the evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read & approved with slight corrections.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary for the Yearly Meeting of the work of the Committee for the past year was read & with slight alterations adopted & directed to be laid before the Pastoral Committee of the Yearly Meeting. Charles Davis & John H. Baker were appointed a committee to examine & audit the treasurer's account.

Baltimore The meeting has been attended by several ministers from a distance including George Gillett & Maria Richardson from England. Mr. Jones from England, one of the delegates of the Peace Convention, also our friend Caroline E. Talbot.

Lederal Hill Caroline E. Talbot held two appointed meetings on the 2nd & 3rd insts. She also attended four regular meetings.

Washington Mary S. Thomas attended the meeting on the 6th instant. It was stated that the meeting was in an encouraging condition. The Bible Class has had a good effect & has a good leader & is interesting & instructive. Great