At a meeting of the Yearly Meetings Pastoral Committee held 14th mo 16th 1887 present most of the members also a number of friends in attendance of the Yearly Meeting - John B. Crossman was called to the chair - and John R.
 Cary Saml. A. Brown and Joseph P. Collins were appointed a Committee to receive and bring forward the names of officers for the ensuing year - After consideration this Committee reported the names of Francis T. King for clerk, Chairman James Carey for recording Secy, and Mary S. Thomas for Corresponding Secy and John C. Thomas for Treasurer - The report was read with and these friends were accordingly appointed to these positions -

The Minutes of the past year's meeting were read in part and considered approved -

The Condition and needs of the various meetings comprising our Yearly Meeting were then fully considered and much information & help was brought before the Committee by the members of them as well as of those of the General Conference who had visited them -

George L. Scott stated that he had a concern to visit friends in Adams Co Pa and afterward friends at Dunning Creek - On friend Saml.
 Collins stated that he also had a concern to visit friends at Dunning Creek - It was stated that the way was very open for them to make these visits toward the time of the year should be suitable -

Refus P. King and Caroline E. Talbot both addressed concerns for future work in our Yearly Meeting -
