

resulting from combining them in the opening & closing services with the first day schools.

Fed. Hill Joseph P. Elliott stated that he, John V. Parker & Asahel H. Hussey attended last 1st day evening meeting. A large number of young people were present & the meeting seemed in a very encouraging condition.

Washington Rachel Brooks visited the meeting on 12th mo. 14th. The meeting was interesting & about 18 present. The Bible class was held after the meeting.

Rhine George & Anne Stables expect to visit this meeting & the corresponding secretary was directed to write to them & encourage them to go. By letter Caroline Saltbott is reported to be continuing her work there.

Lincoln Sarah C. Harris visited this meeting on 5th day 13th mo 14th & stayed until 24th day. She visited families & attended the monthly meeting also held appointed meeting on 1st day evening. Her ministry was very helpful & acceptable. They have begun a weekly social religious meeting to be held at the members' houses.

Hopewell Mary S. Thomas visited Hopewell on 11th mo 25th & remained over 1st day. She attended the 1st day morning meeting & Bible class & held three parlor meetings. Interest is in the increase. Bible class is well conducted. Samuelⁿ & Rebecca^d H. Brown of Lincoln were in attendance of the above meetings.

Deer Creek Samuel C. Mills & Sarah C. Harris stayed a week at Deer Creek after Yearly Meeting & their visits were very acceptable.

They visited most of the families there & held three appointed meetings.

Monahan George L. Scott & Sam C. Mills stayed there three or four days ^{holding meetings &} visiting families. ~~Samuel C. Mills writes there are several people~~ ^{who are} ~~there attached to our principles who only~~ ^{needed encouragement to join our society} ~~needed encouragement to join our society~~ ^{there is hope of establishing a meeting as this}

Richmond No report

Black Creek The particular meeting meeting doing well. Sam^l H. Neave & Rufus P. King are visiting the neighborhood of Corinth.

Somerton No report

After a time of waiting the meeting adjourned.

James Cary H. Cary