

on 12th mo 17th & remained till the 19th.
They attended the regular First Day morning meeting & were present at the funeral of Jonathan Moore the same afternoon.

Bendersville (formerly named as Monahan).
Dr R. H. Thomas & Mary S. Thomas went to Bendersville Adams Co. Pa. on the 31 of 12th mo. They were joined by Saml C. Mills on the 1st inst. They held fifteen meetings & paid eight family visits. Mary S. Thomas returned home on the 14th inst. & Saml C. Mills & Dr R. H. Thomas remained until the 7th inst. great interest was manifested by the people of the place in the services of Friends there.

Richmond By letter from the secretary of Pastoral One it is reported that the social meetings are kept up with interest. They wish visits from Baltimore Friends.

Cedar Creek to report

Somerton to report. By letter received from Isabella White they need help & encouragement especially in regard to the new converts.
The cor. secy. was requested to write to Isabella White suggesting the needs of the meeting & encouraging her to visit & spend some time there if she felt drawn to do so.
M. S. M. Allen stated she expected to be at the meeting in about three weeks.

Black Creek The subject of holding a series of meetings there was considered. On reading a letter from Sarah C. Harris it was concluded to suggest to them to defer the meetings until the latter part of the 2nd month & the cor. secy. was directed to write to them to that effect.

Rufus P. King & Samuel R. Kave visited Black Creek neighborhood on 12th mo 19th 1887.
Rufus P. King held a parlor meeting at Carlville & held a meeting at Bethel on 4th day. They attended Black Creek Periodical meeting & had a meeting of great power. They also attended a meeting at Beesa & one at Corinth.

to report

Curwensville Samuel C. Mills reached Curwensville on the 8th of 12th mo. & remained until the 21st holding & attending 13 meetings and visiting a number of families. Dr R. H. Thomas joined him on the 17th & remained until the 20th.
From there Samuel C. Mills proceeded to Fishertown where he remained ten days holding meetings & visiting families. He stated he felt like returning to this place & was encouraged.

Belleville Mary S. Thomas expressed a concern to attend the 4 months meeting on the 30th of this month & wished to ask Isabella White to accompany her. She was encouraged to do so. Julia Valentine stated that if the weather permitted she would go also.

After a time of waiting on the Lord the meeting adjourned.
James Carey & Secy