

the 29th inst. It has not been visited by any member of the Com^{ee} the past month.
 Hopewell Saml C. Mills visited this meeting on the 11th inst. & attended the funeral of Lizzie Wright, wife of Saml. Wright, remaining over First day, holding some parlor meetings & visiting some of the families.

Ashton Caroline E. Salbott remained in the neighborhood of Ashton until the 20th of last month holding meetings & visiting families.
 Samuel C. Mills attended the Monthly Meeting on the 9th inst. & held an appointed meeting that evening which was largely attended, especially by young men.

Lincoln A series of meetings was held at Lincoln beginning on the 23rd of 1st month & ending on the evening of the 5th inst. Samuel C. Mills & Mary S. Thomas were in attendance. The latter left on the 1st inst. because of a previous engagement to hold a meeting elsewhere. The meetings were well attended both in the morning & evening, especially by young people & much interest was manifested.

Patuxent Samuel C. Mills visited Patuxent from the 11th to the 15th inst. attending their First day Meeting & holding two parlor meetings besides visiting families. Samuel C. Mills was in Baltimore lately & expressed himself as much encouraged at the prospects of this meeting. The new members seem to be much interested in it.

Deer Creek No report.

Richmond No report.

Monahan Dr. R. H. Thomas went to Bendersville to attend the funeral of Nicholas Meriman on the 15th & held a parlor meeting that night. There were about four hundred people in attendance at the funeral.

There is a great opening for work there but should be entered upon soon in order to insure results. Such members of the Committee as felt drawn were encouraged to visit this meeting. As it is within the limits of Deer Creek Monthly Meeting the Cor. Secy. was requested to write to the Cor. Secy. of that Com^{ee} & request their co-operation in the work.

Deer Creek No report.

Black Creek The series of meetings appointed by the Pastoral Com^{ee} of Black Creek Monthly Meeting was begun on the 20th of 2nd mo. & closed on the 5th inst. Rufus P. King & James Jones from No. Carolina were in attendance, also M. A. M. Allen. There were twenty appointed meetings besides the regular meetings held at Black Creek. Corinth was visited three times & one appointed meeting held at Bethel. The Tabernacle was visited & religious services held. Mary A. M. Allen held two meetings with the colored people & visited & had service in five white & four colored schools. James Jones held three Temperance lectures.