

and all. Have been much encouraged by the series of meetings recently held. Their Pastoral Com^{tee} composed of earnest workers are prosecuting their labors with enthusiasm. The gospel services of Samuel C. Mills at this meeting were especially helpful to them.

Palmyra No report. John A. Parker expressed a desire to visit this meeting & some of its members & was encouraged to do so.

Monahan Dr R. H. Thomas reported that he had thought best to delay his intended visit until after the Methodist revival then in progress had closed. He still expects to visit the meeting. Mary S. Thomas also was encouraged to visit this meeting at as early a date as practicable.

Richmond Samuel C. Mills visited Richmond from the 2nd to the 5th of 3rd mo. Parlor meetings were held at the houses of Dr Hawkes, Richard Hicks & John B. Crumshaw. He attended the regular first-day morning meeting & had an appointed meeting that night.

Mary S. Thomas was encouraged to visit this meeting in company with Annie Stabler or Lydia Haveland & engage in such religious services as should meet the approbation of their Pastoral Com^{tee}.

Cedar Creek No report.

Black Creek Samuel C. Mills attended. Black Creek meeting twice on 4th day also attended one meeting at Berea.

He attended five meetings at Corinth. The friends there have the advantage of being nearer together they have a good Sabbath school & are more punctual in their attendance of meetings than the other places. He attended 16 meetings at Bethel.

Somerton Samuel C. Mills attended the Monthly Meeting held at Somerton the 3rd 7th day in 2nd mo. & remained over first day.

Unionville No report.

Dunings Creek No report.

Bellefonte No report. Mary S. Thomas expressed a desire to visit this meeting & engage in religious service in its limits. She was encouraged to do so & to take with her a suitable companion.

Extracts from a letter from Samuel C. Mills reviewing his work among our meetings called forth expressions of appreciation of his faithful labors within the limits of this early meeting.

After a time of waiting on the Lord the meeting adjourned.

James Carey & Seay