

just returned from this place where he had been with Rufus King. A parlor meeting was held at Charles Harris with 22 present also a meeting held at a school house near Aspers on 7th day morning. On 1st day morning attended the Hickoke meeting Rufus P. King having good service there. also remained to Bible school & took dinner with a member of the meeting. A meeting was held in the Methodist church on 12th day evening. John M. Parker went to the Temperance meeting in the afternoon. There appears to be a great deal of interest in this neighborhood & a desire that more work should be done among them.

Richmond. The visit of Mary S. Thomas & Annie D. Stalker was not made as arranged but is still in contemplation.

Exeter Co. } Rufus P. King reached the house of Bowling
Van. } Drinton in the neighborhood of Castle Craig Campbell Co. Va. on 3rd mo 24th & remained 18 days. Four meetings were held at a Methodist church called Lamb's two at Grace a colored people's church, one at Good Hope. Some of these meetings were well attended, others were small on account of the weather. There was once a Friends Meeting in this county about five miles from Lynchburg the walls of which are now standing the property is still owned by Friends. A few people who have some connection with Friends still live near Lynchburg. There are five members of our Society in this neighborhood & the way is open for work in that quarter.

Bellefonte Mary S. Thomas & Lydia Haviland visited Bellefonte on 3rd mo 23 & remained until the 27th. Seven family visits were paid & five parlor meetings held. They also attended the first day school & Bible class. Never before was so much interest among people outside of Friends. It is necessary to have a new meeting house. About 60 were present at one of the appointed meetings at the Young Men's Christian Assn. Hall. There were several earnest men who will probably join the meeting. The Bible class has increased in size & interest.

Denings Creek No report

After a time of waiting & prayer the meeting concluded.
