

attended the 4th mos. meeting held at Lusherston on the 9th mo. Five meetings were appointed one of them held at Pleasantville. There was a good attendance especially of young people & the meetings were helpful & encouraging. They need frequent visits.

Bellefonte Julia Valentine spent six weeks at Bellefonte in the 6th & 7th mos. & attended all the regular meetings.

Mary S. Thomas visited Bellefonte twice during this time remaining three days the first & ten days the second time.

Three appointed meetings were held during these visits at a Friends House & one in the Hicksite meeting ^{house} at Unionville. Most of the families of Friends were visited. The pastoral committee of this meeting has done good work in visiting families during the past season.

After a time of waiting the committee adjourned.

James Carey Secy

At a regular meeting of the Executive Committee of Baltimore Yearly Meetings' Pastoral Committee and Cooperating Committee of Baltimore Monthly Meeting held 11th mo 5th 1888 present 22 members.

Mary S. Thomas on behalf of a Committee appointed there for, at our last meeting, reported that they had prepared a plan for the conduct of the 4th day evening meetings during the coming year and had laid the same before that meeting. The plan proposed by them had met the approval of the meeting.

Mary S. Thomas stated that she had made several visits to members of our meeting in pursuance of their concern as laid before the last meeting of this Committee.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and with some slight alterations approved.

The Corresponding Secretary presented the draft of a report of the work of the Committee during the past year to be presented to our next Yearly Meeting, which was approved with slight alterations and directed to be laid before the Pastoral Committee of the Yearly Meeting.

John P. Elliott and James Carey were appointed a Committee to ^{examine and} audit the Treasurer's account and report to the Yearly Meeting, Pastoral Committee to accompany their report to the Yearly Meeting.

Richard S. Thomas stated that he had made one visit to Washington Meeting during the past