

A Memorial of our dear friend Eliza T. Blanchard, received from Dunnings Creek Half Yearly Meeting was read, approved and directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting.

The joint Committee on Curpersville Meeting house made a verbal report.
The Committee on Sites & Meeting-house properties (~~Thomas Mackenzie & Samuel Cary Jr.~~) was instructed to give the matter further attention and report in 3rd Mo. next.

The Committee on Attendance of Ohio Yearly Meeting's Centennial Celebration, as per Minute 23 of last Yearly Meeting, reported the appointment of John C. Thomas & Samuel R. Nease to represent this Yearly Meeting on that occasion.

The term of service of Charles G. Thomas, Joseph L. Hare, A. Morris Carey,
Sara H. Hoge, Benjamin P. Moore, J. James Hunter & Mary C. Keese having expired, the Clerk was instructed to so inform the Yearly Meeting.

John P. Cary introduced the subject of Sabbath-keeping, gambling and attendant dissipation at Harvi-de-Grace and other places in Maryland. William B. Harvey and George M. Warner, members of the Representative Meeting of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting spoke impressively upon the subject and entered the hall of a letter to be sent to the members of the Maryland Legislature. And this said the Philadelphia Friends would cooperate with this Board in any way deemed best to put a stop to this immorality.

John P. Cary, Miles White Jr., Thomas Mackenzie & Charles G. Thomas were appointed a Committee to consider the whole subject and take such action as they think best.

The Clerk was instructed to sign any articles they may require on our behalf.

The time having expired for which the Clerk was appointed, John N. Parker was continued for the ensuing year.

Then adjourned
John N. Parker, Clerk.
