The Committee on Race-track Gambling, etc. reported, as follows:-

To the Permanent Board of Baltimore Yearly Meeting:

Your committee charged with the duty of uniting in an attack upon Race Track Gambling in the state of Maryland would report that no opportunity has occurred for active service since the last meeting of the Board, but we are in affiliation with the association formed in this city to secure remedial legislation at the meeting of the Legislature in 1913. If it is the wish of the Board to continue this committee, we shall be glad to do what we can to further this important movement.

For the Committee
John R. Cary
