The foregoing Minutes from 3rd mo. 6, 1919 to 11 mo. 14, 1919 have been read and approved this day, 11 mo. 19 1919
Attest, Thomas, Clerk

At the Stated Meeting of the Permanent Board of Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Friends (Orthodox) held at Baltimore, Md. Third Month, 27th, 1920. (17)
Seventeen Members were present.

As per Minute "43" of the late Yearly Meeting the following named Friends were appointed to serve on this Board until the year 1924, viz:
Edgar Wyatt, A. Viola Horistay,
Samuel R. Neave, John A. Parker,
William S. Rayford, Arthur E. Warner and
James S. Whitlock.

The Committee to protest to the Md. Legislature against all Bills to authorize gambling at Race-tracks, or otherwise report that they have made considerable efforts, both by visits to Annapolis & by correspondence to influence members of the Legislature to resist the powerful lobby which spares neither money nor underhand means to retain their control of this State. The contest is still in progress & we are giving it our watchful care.

On behalf of the Committee
John C. Thomas
A. Morris Carey
