The Committee on Title to Meeting house property reported as follows, viz;

To the Permanent Board.

Levin Morn visited the meeting house property at Bellesfonte and Curwensville in the Spring of 1924. He found both properties in need of repair.

John Blanchard is still proceeding to get the title to the Bellesfonte ~~property~~ ^{the} name of the Baltimore Yearly Meeting, but he has not yet completed that work.

At Curwensville he found the lawyer Mr. Bigler ill and in the Hospital, and since, we have heard from Mr. Bigler's Secretary that he is too ill to serve us in the matter of getting the title to the meeting house transferred to the Baltimore Yearly Meeting. Your Committee are now arranging to engage another lawyer to complete the work.

The property at Corinth Meeting is held by three deeds to Trustees. The Trustees of the two Meeting house deeds are all alive, but in the matter of the third deed which conveys the lot upon which stand
