

regard to the expense. The Board would share the expense. The Board authorized that this work should be done, provided the cost should not exceed $48.80, the amount of funds we have on hand for this purpose.

The Chairman of the Board was instructed to record and report to the yearly meeting the expiration of the term of service of the following members of the permanent Board:—
John E. Bradshaw, Sallie P. Brooke, instructed to write a letter to the Washington Meeting asking whether the insurance carried is sufficient.
