

230 A. Viola Horisberg delivered the history of the Hopewell Meeting, which was recently acquired thru the Record Fund for placing in the vault with our records.

The Permanent Board authorized J. Hoge Ricks to employ his discretion in the matter of having photostatic record made of the Minute Book of the Richmond Monthly Meeting, the original and the copy, if any should be made, to be placed in the vault at Baltimore with our other records.

The term of service of the following members of the Permanent Board having expired, the Clerk was ordered to advise the Clerk of the Yearly Meeting of the vacancies: Vernon L. Brown, Howard M. Hoge, E. Hester Raiford, Margaret T. Carey, Lewis H. Wetherald, Isaac C. White, Matthew T. Woodard, and approved. The Report of the Trustees of the Thomas King Fund was read. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Caleb Winslow,
Clerk of the Permanent Board.
