to send any person out ^{last spring} to reside at the settlement ~~last spring~~, and that, the situation of these ^{Indians} had recently become so critical that the Government has resolved as an ^{indispensable} means of security to them, to remove the whole of their families within the ^{white} settlements where they ^{are now} supported at the public expense, and their towns ^{are} is deserted

The Committee has since last year continued to care to the Delawareans near Mohickon Johns Lake and these Indians. ~~in the early part of the season, some~~ ~~had~~ had appeared disposed steadily to pursue the improvement & cultivation of their land, and there appeared a good prospect of their making considerable advances in the arts of civil life, they were accordingly furnished with some wheat for the purpose of sowing last fall, but ^{such was} owing to the exasperated state of the public mind throughout that country that these Villages had been entirely destroyed, and the Indians obliged to fly for shelter & protection to the Gov^t of the State of Ohio. The Committee also ~~have rec^d~~ the ^{distressing} intelligence, that the ~~the~~ = blishment which Friends ~~had~~ heretofore occupied on the Wabash, ^{had been broken up} and the whole of the Bouses but ~~put~~ the inhabitants dispersed or killed, ~~the~~ under these discouraging circumstances the Committee ~~has~~ found itself under the necessity of suspending its labours at that place

1813 The Committee reported that information had been rec^d by them that several of the Indian families had rec^d to Waupakannetta there was a prospect that they would raise and ~~had raised~~ a good crop of Corn. The Committee had however not resumed their operations except that they had furnished a quantity of farming tools to the settlement of Mingous situated on the head waters of ~~the~~ Great Miami river near Stoney Creek, who had through their chief ~~made~~ application to friends for some agri-culture

1814 The Committee reported that no way appeared yet to open to renew ~~the~~ ^{its} operations amongst the Indians, the late war which unhappily raged through that country having only within few months subsided and many of those people
