

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held 4th/1867 present F. J. King, Miles White, Dr. C. Winslow and John C. Thomas. An appeal for an endowment of New Garden Reading School was received. It was concluded to recommend them to defer publishing it for the present.

A letter was received from Dr. Moore in reference to his successor, & the further consideration of it deferred to next meeting.

A Report of our proceedings for the first year was presented and adopted & directed to be printed.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held 2nd Mo. 1st 1867 present F. J. King, Miles White, Dr. C. Winslow, Dr. Jas. C. Thomas & John C. Thomas

It was decided to send John Scott to visit the four Western Quarterly Meetings to afford such physical relief as may be necessary, & to urge upon those who have not sent their children to school the importance of doing so; also, to make arrangements with Dr. Nicholson, or other suitable person, to perform the same service in the two Eastern Quarters; each to receive $150. pr. mo.

Several letters were received from Dr. Moore who is now in Tennessee & it was decided to take charge of the schools in that district, as the Friends desire.

Robt. Butler of Dinwiddie Co. having lost everything by the war, we send him $25.-

Letter received from Saml. L. Bailey of N. Jersey offering a number of agricultural periodicals, & F. J. King was directed to accept & have them bound as the nucleus of a library.

Decided to send Reul Luman to Boardy. Schl. another session.

John Scott was authorized to buy Nathan Hunt's farm if he can get it at $15.- per acre.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held 2nd Mo. 25th 1867. present F. J. King, Miles White, Dr. J. C. Thomas, & John C. Thomas.

A number of applications for the position of farmer were read, & it was decided to take Mr. A. Sampson for six months on trial, paying all expenses of himself & wife, & such reasonable compensation as he may demand.

Letter was read from John Scott stating