My dear friend
 I really cannot remember the arrangement that was made through me with the Trustees - I presume they made a minute of it & there it passed from me entirely in the crowd of other things which have since pressed upon me.
 The pay was to be in gold & the sum was not an even hundred, but an odd 50 - reduced to that by them. I don't remember any thing being said about the time of pay^{ing} to them.
 I advised against their leaving with the family at the beginning of winter and urged them to look to a change in the spring if they intended leaving with satisfaction
 My friend Wm. Lloyd Garrison
