

school-house, which have to the school. There are well supplied, & comfortable in Joseph H. Kent, a graduate of Harvard College, 18 years a teacher of the Haverhill College, Andover, a Methodist minister by name
 - a valued young minister - in his parsonage just the same or near. During my visit to have last month we went over his parsonage & arranged for the future. The school for the year ending June 1 - the new one will open on the 1st of month.
 In the morning young gentlemen have been made to open school in several new neighbourhoods & new school houses are to build to accommodate them school. The Teachers, who are all active & teaching last time, will be collected at Springfield with a learned school during the vacation, the thorough taught & trained by Joseph H. Kent & that of his strength and assistants, so that they may learn with confidence a high grade of teaching & will more confidently sustain with numbers 45, including several young friends, who will be back after school as a school. Joseph H. Kent as the independent training of the young people is it alone would leave the work very much. There were of living farming as to whether to the effect of a permanent school & young school - a new schoolhouse to establish a new farm & agricultural school under a new farm as a new school where we taught day school at Leeward.
 The school this day will be large monthly meetings
