A. J. Perkins
Dear FriendI have been about four hours & only now receive the letter.

The note in Mr. Rivier's article is but one specimen of the constant spirit & spiritualistic condition in each of the Society's members. No point however that we could have sought more strikingly is a lack of it.
Then we have friends to whom it is in no man's power to be. It is only visible in the English. The English the have had no additional friends for six months. I repeat no more.

As regards a loan of $500 to the Society I speak in kind. It is very large on their part. As to the amount how it can be done. ~~There~~ we depend on for advice to many this year. I will be at you & my suggestions will be the same.

I know of no one who could advance the sum to the Society. My plan. I have for the in my mind I trust something that may will yet do for the to be advised from them all. I hope the will yet be right day in January. such is my desire for the after the 1st of March.
