 Dear friend,
 I recd thy letter of the 1st of Nov. & am glad to hear of thy feelings in reference to the subject upon which I write thee. The matter is in earnest & we feel anxious to know that cases of suffering, if existing, are relieved.
 Mr. Scott has agreed to take the western tour. We want a suitable friend to take those of Eastern & Central time - a man of prudence, judgment & right of character - one who will do the work quietly & well. We wish to make no beggars out of people who have had self-reliance. There are many poor women & sick old men - others
