

Place there will change soon for High Point about 15 miles further - at High Point there is a good Hotel - where Parker & mother & friends lived there, & he will advise them to the Franklin 24 miles distant. If there can write a day or two before starting to visit the Franklins, that will be better. I hope, when he is near the farm he will write there - he is now near in the city, & I first day of the week - a warm day as the weather is fine & pleasant - he has a fine family also. He has just finished all a new house. I have written him there will be a long room.

It is useless now to go into details & perhaps better to - we want that to see the place, if there concludes to accept the position, to come on here & take the matter over with me & Co. - He should visit to make the family comfortable & deal with the a liberal spirit.

It is a position of responsibility, but one of enlarged public & Christian benevolence, the effect of which will extend, as has done the 3rd deposit, & which we believe that &
