Wm. Chapman
Dear Friends.

I have just read thy paper before consulting Mr. White or Mr. Lane.
I must like us to arrange a few points that do not appear to be covered wherever I find it all needed showing simple ness to spare language; I should like them to add "not exceeding" "what can be made thus narrow."

Admiral needed providing first year, it must be more satisfactory to us & you to name a sum & then you can live as you please - please estimate that sum.

Each party should have the right to enter the contract at the end of any year giving three months notice - should there be any matters of importance of view to be referred to arbitrators.

The should pay a provision for them & they have when engaged in forming agricultural clubs & factories - please name it.

There is another important matter that never thought of until now. Our rule
