

little, but would suit us better.

We can't have examined this plan carefully & like it much - we think it better adapted the climate & cheap enough for others to follow. We are willing however to let Mac & the firm decide the matter. Macaahold a council over it & write us at once - we wish to know your candid opinion - we sleep in our instant one.

If you adopt the new plan, Mac & others will have to select a new site for the Grand - more level & with a better view - room for the cattle & sheds & yards, and any for the dairy, but it cannot be asked - How did right to start up the old barn - make the dairy comfortable you can in the old house - make me live as we necessary.

not as they ideas of a suitable dwelling a better climate - about winter, & summer - the will build it out.

We conclude on this new plan which has been indicated here - Mac as a
